

22 April 1977

Mr. Herbert Hetu, Assistant for Public Affairs
Office of the Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Hetu:

As discussed recently by telephone, I have been asked by RADM Robert N. Colwell, Director, Naval Reserve Intelligence Program, NAS Alameda, CA, to determine whether our Agency would be interested in providing the speaker for the Annual Naval Reserve Intelligence Dinner to be held 14 May 1977 at Treasure Island. The audience would consist of 200 Naval Reserve Intelligence personnel from the greater Bay Area who man the intelligence reserve units and National Reserve Intelligence Program headquarters at NAS Alameda under Admiral Colwell's direction. His recently-chosen successor, RADM-select Martin J. Andrew of Denver, Colorado, will also be in the audience. The dinner will be in the Casa de la Vista Officers Club at 6 p.m. that date; the audience will consist only of naval intelligence reserve personnel who are cleared through secret.

This is rather short lead time but it has been explained to me that the dinner had to be moved up one month due to unavoidable circumstances. It is hoped that an Agency or Intelligence Community official with a Navy background could fulfill the request and, as we discussed, Admiral Murphy would be an outstanding choice. Vice Admiral Inman spoke to the group several years ago and would, of course, be a welcome repeat performer, if available.

Your assistance will be greatly appreciated by Admiral Colwell and his naval reserve intelligence officers.

Sincerely,

CRC:cb
